2015 CITIPOINTE SPEECH AND DRAMA

Extra-Curricular Speech and Drama lessons are offered for students in Years 1-12.

Students have the opportunity to learn about different types and styles of performance such as Realism, Melodrama, Mime, Physical Theatre, Poetry, Puppetry, Commedia de l’Arte, and Clowning. There is also a focus on speech skills, with students able to work towards improving articulation, projection, confidence and to study Public Speaking.

Performance Opportunities include:
- School events
- Year level performances
- Speech and Drama Showcase
- Class performance

Classes:
- Year 1 - 12 group classes: during break times, before and after school
- Primary group classes:
  30 mins, 9 students, $9.00 per lesson
- Sec group classes:
  1 hour, $13 per lesson
- Pair / Individual classes:
  During class time rotating timetable
  - for Eisteddfods and exams
  - for extension and extra support

2015 Speech and Drama Tutors

Rebecca Morris
Rebecca graduated from Citipointe College in 2011 and attained her Associate Diploma with Trinity College London (ATCL) in 2013. She has been teaching Speech and Drama at Citipointe since late 2012, first as an assistant and then as an independent tutor. Rebecca is involved with Youth With A Mission (YWAM) and has studied at The Actor’s Conservatory (Queensland). She currently attends Citipointe Church.

Brittany Dale
Brittany graduated from Citipointe College in 2013. She worked as a Speech and Drama Tutor’s Assistant and completed her Associate Diploma with Trinity College of London (ATCL) while completing Year 12. Brittany is currently studying a Bachelor of Arts/Journalism at the University of Queensland, majoring in Drama. She attends Gateway Baptist Church.

Esther McElrea
Esther graduated from Citipointe College in 2010. She has since completed a Bachelor of Science, majoring in Biomedical Science with an extended major in Anatomy. She has studied Speech and Drama since Year 2, and is currently pursuing her Associate Diploma with Trinity College of London. Esther has been involved with Scripture Union’s SMADD Arts Camp as a leader in both Drama and Dance cores. She is currently attending Hillsong Brisbane.